When a wedding takes place in the countryside, one of the first questions out-of-town guests ask is where to stay. Fincastle is a small historic town, and while Roanoke and Daleville offer hotels, many families like the idea of staying closer to the farm. Bailey Wick Farm Wedding & Event Venue helps with that by linking to two Airbnb stays from its website.

The first is the Fincastle Retreat. Its name speaks to its location in Fincastle, which keeps it convenient for a wedding at the farm. A rental like this can give the couple, their parents or the wedding party a place to relax the night before, get ready in the morning and return after the reception without a long drive.

Booking a rental close to the venue can take a lot of stress out of the weekend. Instead of guests spreading out across hotels in Roanoke, Daleville and Troutville, a core group can stay together and share meals, rides and stories. It also gives the couple a quiet base to come back to after a long, happy day.
