Action 1: Obtain a Medical Certificate

The really first document required is a medical certificate of physical fitness.

1. Check out a general specialist (GP) or a designated occupational health physician.
2. The doctor will perform basic tests (vision, hearing, basic health history, and blood pressure).
3. Those who wear glasses or contact lenses need to bring them along; the resulting license will note the requirement for restorative lenses.
4. As soon as passed, the doctor problems an official medical certificate ( Orvosi Alkalmassági Vélemény).

Action 2: Complete the First-Aid Course

In Hungary, finishing a certified first-aid course and passing its exam is obligatory before requesting a full driving license.

- The Hungarian Red Cross ( Magyar Vöröskereszt) arranges these courses.
- Many driving schools ( autósiskola) package this course into their plans.

- The test consists of a multiple-choice survey and a useful presentation of CPR and bandaging strategies. (Medical professionals, nurses, and those with certain medical degrees may be exempt from this action).

Action 3: Enroll in a Driving School ( Autósiskola)

Selecting the best driving school is crucial, particularly for non-Hungarian speakers. Many schools in Budapest and significant cities offer courses and textbooks totally in English.

The training jogosítvány adminisztráció is divided into 2 primary stages:

1. Theoretical Training (Kresz):
    - Typically consists of a minimum of 28 hours of classes (or an equivalent online self-study portal).
    - Covers Hungarian traffic rules, road signs, and guidelines.
2. Practical Training (Vezetés):
    - Can only begin after passing the theory test.
    - Requires a minimum of 29 driving hours plus 1 useful exam hour (amounting to 30 hours), covering a necessary distance of a minimum of 580 kilometers.

Step 4: Pass the Theory Exam (KRESZ Vizsga)

Once the theoretical classes are completed, trainees need to take the main computer-based theory examination at a designated federal government screening center.

- Format: 55 multiple-choice concerns.
- Time limitation: 30 minutes.
- Scoring: The exam runs out 75 points (some concerns deserve 3 points, others 1 or 2). A minimum of 65 points is required to pass.
- Language: Available in Hungarian, English, and German at a lot of urban centers.

Step 5: Complete Practical Lessons and the Road Exam

After passing the KRESZ exam, students are appointed a driving trainer ( oktató) to begin practical lessons behind the wheel.

- Trainees discover standard automobile control, maneuvering, city driving, and rural/highway driving.
- As soon as the trainer agrees that the trainee is prepared-- and the minimum hour/kilometer requirements are fulfilled-- the useful roadway exam ( forgalmi vizsga) is arranged.
- The road exam lasts around 50 minutes and takes place on public roadways with an official inspector being in the back seat and the instructor in the front passenger seat.
