Deep Dive: The Four Crazy Time Bonus Rounds

Triggering a perk round carries gamers from the main studio into a secondary digital or physical mini-game. This is where the game truly earns its name.

Coin Flip

This is the simplest and most frequent benefit round. The host steps up to a device that turns a coin with a Red side and a Blue side.

- Before the flip, random multipliers are assigned to each side of the coin.
- Whichever color lands face up identifies the winning multiplier for all players who bet on Coin Flip.

Money Hunt

Money Hunt takes players to a massive digital screen featuring a shooting gallery filled with 108 random multipliers.

- Each multiplier is concealed behind a different sign (such as a cactus, target, or chef's hat).
- Players are offered a restricted time to aim and fire a cannon at a sign of their choice.
- As soon as time ends, the concealed multipliers are revealed, and each gamer receives the multiplier behind their picked target.

Pachinko

Motivated by the conventional Japanese arcade game, Pachinko includes a big physical board filled with pegs.

- The host drops a radiant puck from the top of the board.
- The puck bounces randomly down through the pegs till it lands in among numerous multiplier slots at the bottom.
- If the puck arrive on a "Double" worth, all multipliers at the bottom of the board double, and the host drops the puck again for even larger wins.

Crazy Time

The holy grail of the video game, the Crazy Time benefit round, leads players behind a red door into a dynamic, surreal virtual world including a huge 64-segment wheel.

- Gamers need to choose one of 3 flappers: Green, Blue, or Yellow.
- The host presses a giant red button to spin the wheel.
- Whichever sector the chosen flapper indicate is the multiplier the gamer wins.

- Similar to Pachinko, this wheel consists of "Double" and "Triple" sectors, which can send multipliers increasing as much as the video game's maximum limitation of 20,000 x or 25,000 x.

Breakdown of Odds and Payouts

Comprehending the mathematical probabilities behind Crazy Time is essential for managing a bankroll successfully. Because the wheel has a fixed variety of sectors, specific outcomes are statistically much more likely than others.
