When you hire help, it is reasonable to want to know exactly what you are paying for. Vague promises of a sparkling home do not tell you whether the baseboards get dusted or the ceiling fans get touched. The Happy Housekeepers, which has provided house cleaning in Roanoke since 1979, lists its standard residential tasks on its website, so here is a room-by-room look at what a typical visit covers.

In the kitchen, the company provides a complete kitchen clean-up. That is the room where grease, crumbs and spills build up fastest, and it gets thorough attention every visit. The floor is mopped as part of the hard surface floor cleaning that runs throughout the house. Waste baskets are emptied, and blinds and window sills near the sink are dusted.

In bathrooms, the standard is a total bathroom clean-up. Tubs, showers, sinks, toilets, mirrors and counters are cleaned, and floors are mopped. Cobwebs around exhaust fans and high corners are removed where needed. For homes with several bathrooms, each one gets the same level of attention.

Living rooms, dens and bedrooms receive dusting or polishing of furniture and vacuuming of carpets. Window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans are dusted, which is often the step that makes the biggest visible difference. Hard surface floors are mopped house cleaning services and waste baskets emptied throughout the house.

Beyond the standard list, specialized services are available. These include spring and fall cleanings, cleaning the interior of ovens and refrigerators, washing walls and woodwork, cleaning light fixtures and cleaning basements. Many customers add them seasonally or rotate them into a weekly or bi-weekly plan.

The company also offers move-in and move-out cleanings, builder and contractor clean-ups and apartment manager services, each of which builds on this same checklist with extra focus on empty rooms and appliances.

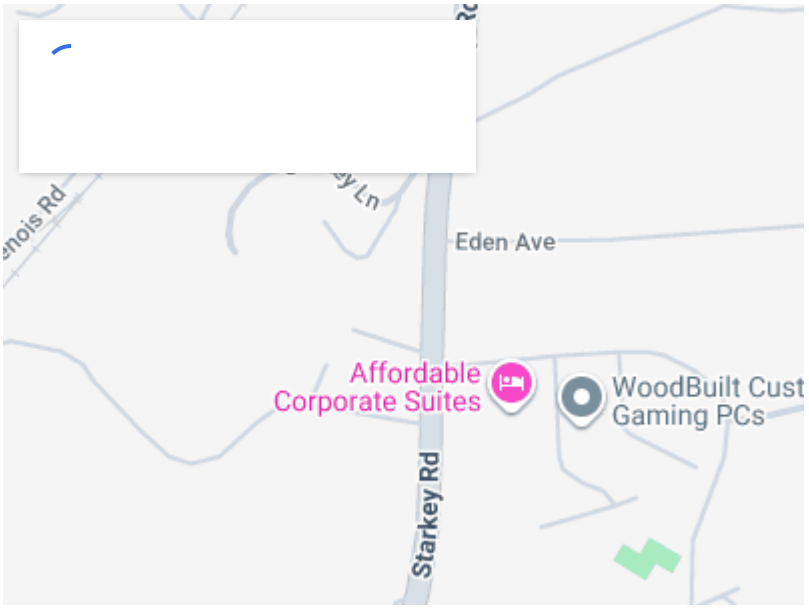

The Happy Housekeepers is licensed, bonded and insured, staff are bonded and insured by the business and the company displays a BBB blue seal. Every estimate is free and carries no obligation, so you can confirm the checklist for your home before you book.

Hallways, stairwells and entryways are covered too. These areas are easy to forget, but they take the most foot traffic in any house. Carpets on stairs are vacuumed, hard floors in entries are mopped and cobwebs are cleared from tall stairwell corners where they tend to gather. Baseboards along hallways, which collect scuffs and dust from daily traffic, are dusted as part of the standard list.
