Seeing what your challengers wager and how they act permits you to customize your own wagers and playing choices.

- If you are the chip leader and the player in 2nd location bets huge, you can match their bet to protect your lead.
- If you are trailing badly near completion of a round, acting last allows you to make a contrarian bet (e.g., doubling down when others remain) to make up ground.

2. Difference Management

In a short competition format, variation is a powerful enemy. Gamers can not merely suffer a cold streak. Rivals should know when to take calculated dangers-- such as doubling down on soft totals or splitting low sets-- even when instinct screams warn. On the other hand, when holding a commanding chip lead, safeguarding those chips by playing conservatively ends up being paramount.

3. Bankroll and Bet Sizing

- Keep an eye on the leaderboards: Always know where you stand relative to the cut-off line.
- Avoid stagnation: If you are sitting in a certifying position with just 2 hands left, stop wagering big quantities. Secure the possession.
- Hostility when behind: If you are outside the cash with three hands remaining, standard bets won't save you. You must scale up your wagers to catch the leaders.
