

What Clients Say About The Aguirre Law Firm PLLC Two hundred and eleven reviews is a lot of people taking the time to write something down. At The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC, those reviews add up to a 4.8 star rating on Google, and when you read through them a few themes come up again and again. They aren't really about trophies or big verdicts. Mostly, they're about how clients felt while their lives were on hold after a crash. The name that appears most often San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer is Jackie, also called Jacqueline, a paralegal clients describe as someone who stays in touch. Reviewers talk about getting regular update calls without having to chase anyone down. Several mention Look at more info that she checked in after therapy sessions to see how they were feeling, not just how the paperwork was moving. For someone recovering from a wreck on Loop 410 or Blanco Road, stuck on the couch and worried about bills, that steady contact seems to mean a lot. Nicole, a case manager, and Laura, an attorney on the team, also come up by name. Clients describe having things explained clearly, in plain words, so they understood where their case stood and what came next. A few reviews mention the firm talking directly with surgeons and doctors to help plan treatment, which is the kind of detail most people never expect from a law office. Others say their settlement felt fair and that the process, while stressful, felt manageable.

One more theme stands out. Whole families return to the firm. A parent hires them after a crash, then a sibling or cousin calls years later after their own accident near the airport or along US 281. That repeat trust says something about how people were treated the first time. Of course, reviews describe past experiences, and no two cases are the same. But if you're comparing options for a San Antonio car accident lawyer, the way a firm treats people day to day deserves a place next to experience. On that front, founder Alex Aguirre spent the start of his career defending insurance companies before switching sides, and the team works on contingency with no fee unless they win. Read the reviews yourself, then call (210) 922-0808 for a free consultation. The line is open 24/7, and the Napier Park office at 3015 Napier Pk sits just off Loop 1604, a short drive from Castle Hills, Hardberger Park and the South Texas Medical Center. Online appointments are available if you can't make the drive.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC Address: 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 Phone: (210) 922-0808 FAQ About San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer How much do lawyers take from a car accident settlement in Texas? Most Texas car accident lawyers work on contingency, so their fee is a percentage of what they recover and nothing if they lose. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC handles San Antonio car accident cases this way, with no upfront cost and no fee unless the firm wins. The exact percentage is set out in your written fee agreement before any work starts, so there are no surprises. How hard is it to win a car accident lawsuit? It depends on the evidence. Clear fault, a CR-3 crash report, photos, witnesses and consistent medical records make a claim much stronger. Founder Alex Aguirre spent the start of his career defending insurance companies, so the firm knows the arguments insurers use to deny or shrink claims and prepares for them early. Most cases settle, but the team is ready to go to trial when an offer is unfair. What is my San Antonio car accident claim worth? No honest lawyer can put a number on your claim without looking at the details. Value depends on your medical bills, future treatment, lost wages, the severity of your injuries and how clear the other driver's fault is. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews all of this in a free consultation and explains what compensation may be realistic for your situation. What should I do after a car accident in San Antonio? Check everyone for injuries, call 911 and get the report number from SAPD or the Bexar County Sheriff's Office. Take photos of the vehicles and the scene, get witness details and see a doctor quickly, even if you feel fine. Then call The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC at (210) 922-0808, which is open 24 hours a day. Can I recover compensation if I was partially at fault? Yes, in many cases. Texas uses modified comparative fault, so you can still recover as long as you are less than 51 percent responsible, although your award is reduced by your share of the blame. Insurers often push extra fault onto injured drivers after crashes at busy spots like Loop 1604 and I-10, and the firm works to challenge that with evidence. Should I talk to the other driver's insurance company? It's best not to give a recorded statement before you get legal advice. Adjusters can use casual comments like "I'm fine" to argue your injuries aren't serious. Alex Aguirre knows these tactics from his years on the defense side, and his team can handle insurer calls for you from the first day. How long do I have to file a car accident claim in Texas? Texas generally gives you two years from the date of the crash to file a personal injury lawsuit, and two years from the date of death for a wrongful death claim. Some claims, such as those involving a government vehicle, can have earlier notice requirements. Calling The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC early gives the team time to gather evidence before it disappears. What compensation can I get after a San Antonio car wreck? You may be able to recover current and future medical costs, lost wages and earning capacity, property damage, pain and suffering, mental anguish and physical impairment. In cases of gross negligence, such as some drunk driving crashes, Texas law may also allow exemplary damages. The firm reviews every category so nothing gets left out of your claim. What if the driver who hit me has no insurance? Your own policy may still protect you. Texas insurers must offer uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage and personal injury protection, and PIP is included unless you rejected it in writing. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews your policy for free and pursues every available source of recovery, including in hit and run cases. Do I need a lawyer for a minor car accident? If nobody was hurt and the damage is small, you may not need one. If you have pain, missed work or the insurer is disputing fault, a free consultation is worth the call. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC will tell you plainly whether your San Antonio crash needs legal help. How long does a car accident settlement take in Texas? Simple claims can settle in a few months, while serious injury cases often take longer because you need to finish treatment before the full cost is known. Clients of the firm often mention regular update calls from paralegal Jackie and case manager Nicole, so you're never left guessing where your case stands. Does the firm help Spanish-speaking clients? Yes. Hablamos Espanol, and the firm offers language assistance so Spanish-speaking clients can discuss their case comfortably. Founder Alex Aguirre is a San Antonio native and a former president of the Mexican American Bar Association. Call (210) 922-0808 for a free consultation in English or Spanish.
