Oceanside Abbey Carpet and Floor stocks a curated combination of exclusive brands available only through Abbey network stores and major national brands that have built strong reputations for quality and value across the full market. This combination gives customers both the unique product access that exclusive brands provide and the familiarity and confidence of recognized names. Shaw and Mohawk are among the largest and most respected flooring manufacturers in North America, with research and development resources that produce continuous improvements in product performance, durability, and visual quality. Both are represented in the carpet, hardwood, laminate, and vinyl categories at Oceanside Abbey Carpet and Floor. COREtec, owned by USFloors, is one of the defining brands in the luxury vinyl plank category, with its patented cork underlayment and 100-percent waterproof construction setting a standard that competitors have spent years trying to match. Karndean Designflooring brings a premium European design sensibility to luxury vinyl that is visually distinctive and highly detailed. Exclusive brands including Alexander Smith, American Showcase, Infinity Nylon, and Pet Defense Carpet are available only at Abbey Carpet and Floor locations, which means the customer cannot price-compare them against another retailer, and the Lifetime Warranty on these exclusive collections is a genuine competitive advantage that no national brand can offer through a mass-market channel.
