That seems remarkable and all, but if grocery shopping is not your thing, Mitsuwa is your market. The dining establishments will vary from one area to one more, however the most well-known would certainly be Santouka ramen although I extremely recommend Gyutan Tsukasa in Costa Mesa. Otherwise, long-time shoppers of Marukai are delegated question why their beloved store was exchanged a Tokyo Central whereas various other regions got to hold on to theirs (they never ever do things that seem to make good sense). That is a branding issue due to the fact that they have some Marukai stores transformed to Tokyo Central stores, yet they do not rebrand them all.
